Presidents of the Lubbock AMBUC clubs, Coby Wright, Lubbock; Scott Piercy, Monterey; and Alison Chapa, Caprock; along with Bill Wrench listen as mayor David Miller reads a proclamation recognizing the chapters for the work they do in the Lubbock community.

Luncheon kicks-off Visibility Month

Members from Lubbock's three AMBUC clubs along with Tech therapy students and faculty, and other special invited guests joined together to begin AMBUC Visibility Month at a luncheon this past Monday.

In addition to Lubbock mayor David Miller reading a proclamation recognizing AMBUCs for the good things we do in this community, Richard Hamilton talked about what is AMBUCS and Patty Vannoy informed the group on National Scholarship applications. Patty serves on the National Scholarship Committee that decides who gets scholarships.

Dr. Roger Wolcott was our featured speaker for the event. He heads a local rehab center that employs a team made up of doctors and therapists that serve clients in this area.

He spoke to the students to let them know a little about the career they are preparing. He also had words of praise and encouragement to the AMBUCs for all that we do.

The meeting ended with the Caprock and Monterey chapters presenting AmTrykes to two young people, Presley and Anthony. The Lubbock chapter drew raffle tickets for free admittance to the upcoming ABC Rodeo in April.
