We had 29 members and 1 guest at Monday's meeting. John Simnacher was the guest of Brent Woods.

Bill Wrench and Brent Woods share a birthday on July 19. Also, Jack Boyster and his wife Jo have an anniversary on the 19th.

Jim Berrier won the handshaker's pot. There was no Marble-O since Patty Vannoy won all the money the previous week. Richard Hamilton promises we will start a new one this coming week.

FAIR UPDATE

We are only 9 weeks out from this year's fair. Hugh Lankford is still taking sign-ups for fair meal deal tickets. These are meals we sponsor to kids in the Lubbock area. Also, we are selling sponsorship signs for $300 each. See Jeff for details.

Club to begin meeting at the Market Center on Monday, July 21

This Monday we will begin meeting on a permanent basis at the Market Center located on the Texas Tech campus at the corner of 19th St. and University Avenue.

Parking should be much easier and all of old folks will appreciate the shorter walk to get to our room. University Caterers will provide the meal.

This is only our 3rd move in the past 25 years. In 1983, when I joined, the club was meeting at the Civic Center. A few years after later we moved to Danny's Fins and Hens at 50th and Ave.

Q. We stayed there until the mid 1990's. At that time we moved to the McInturff Center.

Some of our past members may find the new location more convenient, so our membership committee is contacting a number of them to invite them to check us out and to consider rejoining.

Thanks go to the search committee of Patty Vannoy, Jim Berrier, Rick Sosebee and Gail King for the work they did to find us a new location.

In addition to the new meeting place, the name badges have been redone and all active members are listed in alphabetical order. This means that you will most likely have a new number on the back of your badge.

On Monday, if you get to the meeting and no one is there, you are at the wrong place!

Hey, it would be great if we have all 47 active members present for our first meeting at the Market Center.

Recent Program Speakers

David Fish and his wife spoke to us on June 30 about the work done at the Breedlove Dehydration plant.

Mayor Tom Martin gave us an update on the state of the city at our July 7 meeting.

Members attend AMBUC convention

Club members Patty and David Vannoy and Bill Wrench are in Rogers, Arkansas this week attending the National AMBUC Convention.

The convention is a great event to learn about AMBUCS and what members are doing in other parts of the country.

They should also find out how we stacked up against the other clubs during the awards program.

Upcoming Events

July 16-19 - Ntl. Convention
Rogers, Arkansas

July 21 - Dr. Douglas Klepper
Lubbock Pediatric Society

July 28 - Scott Towner
Towner Manufacturing

July 29 - Board Meeting
Lakeridge Country Club
11:45 a.m.

New Members Installed
