Fair Restaurant - A Success

By Faissal Zeitouni

FAIR PROJECT CHAIRMAN

The fair is over and it was successful. I want to thank the members who sold signs and worked shifts. I especially want to thank the members of the fair committee who beside working their shifts took on additional responsibilities and made the whole thing possible.

According to Roger's unofficial tally our combined sales of signs and food was a couple of thousand dollars more than last year. Not bad with the economic uncertainty that we are facing.

We added new equipment, refined the process, benefitted from past experience and learned from mistakes. We received two top performers citation for quality and service and also had a nice write up in the A.J. about who we are and what we do.

I believe we now have an opportunity with the extra exposure to recruit new members and grow our club. New members are essential; they bring fresh outlooks and new ideas to complement what we have. I believe the fair restaurant is the best social we do all year.

It gives us the opportunity to work with each other and get to know each other's families and friends.

All in all this was a good year and congratulations are in order to all the members.
