Concho Resource Center Helping Challenged People

Concho Resource Center is dedicated to providing employment opportunities to individuals with physical, mental or visual challenges in communities they serve according to Donna Uhlir. Donna was at Monday's meeting to present our program and help kick-off our clothing drive.

Concho Resource Center serves the communities in and around San Angelo, Amarillo and Lubbock. At the Lubbock center, they specialize in soliciting and collecting good used clothing, house wares, toys and small furniture. In turn, they have developed a merchandising partnership with Savers, one of the largest thrift store operations in the U.S.

Donna said that they will have a truck at our next 2 meetings to collect items donated from club members.

Bring guests and sign-up members to participate in the Masters Golf Tournament.

This check presentation took place at Market Street. Pictured are Norval Pollard from City Bank, Eddie Owens from United Supermarkets, LCLL Board members David Canale & Patty Vannoy, LCLL player Ford Canale and Coaches Jonna & Jayla Ward. The $3700+ dollars that was awarded to LCLL was money raised at the Western Little League Victory Parade. Very Cool, huh!!!
